Re: FOIA Request – Yuri Nosenko

Dear Ms. Nelson:

This is a request on behalf of the James Madison Project (“JMP”) under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552, et seq., for copies of all Central Intelligence Agency (“CIA”) records, including cross-references, pertaining to Soviet defector Yuri Nosenko, with the exception of previously released documents. However, documents that were previously withheld in part or in full should be considered responsive to this request. Enclosed please find an obituary from the New York Times.

You are hereby instructed that the term “record” includes, but is not limited to, all e-mail communications to or from any individual within your office, memoranda, inter-agency communications, sound recordings, tape recordings, video or film recordings, photographs, notes, note-books, indices, jottings, message slips, letters or correspondence, telexes, telegrams, facsimile transmissions, statements, policies, manuals or binders, books, handbooks, business records, personnel records, ledgers, notices, warnings, affidavits, declarations under penalty of perjury, unsworn statements, reports, diaries or calendars, regardless of whether they are hand-written, printed, typed, mechanically or electronically recorded or reproduced on any medium capable of conveying an image, such as paper, computer discs, or diskettes. Furthermore, in line with the guidance issued by the DOJ on 9 September 2008 to all federal agencies with records subject to FOIA, agency records that are currently in the possession of a U.S. Government contractor for purposes of records management remain subject to FOIA. Please ensure that your search complies with this clarification on the effect of Section 9 of the OPEN Government Act of 2007 of the definition of a “record” for purposes of FOIA. Please also consider this letter an affirmative rejection of any limitation of your search to CIA-originated records.

“Knowledge will forever govern ignorance, and a people who mean to be their own Governors, must arm themselves with the power knowledge gives.”

If you deny all or part of this request, please cite the specific exemptions you believe justify your refusal to release the information or permit the review and notify us of your appeal procedures available under the law. In excising material, please “black out” rather than “white out” or “cut out.”

We are hereby requesting a waiver of all fees in accordance with our status as a representative of the news media. JMP is a non-profit organization under the laws of the District of Columbia, has the ability to disseminate information on a wide scale, and intends to use information obtained through FOIA in original works. Stories concerning our activities have received prominent mention in many publications including, but not limited to, the Washington Post, Washington Times, St. Petersburg Tribune, San Diego Union Tribune, European Stars & Stripes, Christian Science Monitor, U.S. News and World Report, Mother Jones, and Salon Magazine. Our website, where much of the information received through our FOIA requests is or will be posted for all to review, can be accessed at <http://www.jamesmadisonproject.org>, and information published there has previously been used by third parties in published works. In addition, we also intend to use information obtained through FOIA in our own published opinion editorials, journal articles, and the like. JMP’s Director of FOIA Operations Kel McClanahan has already published information received through FOIA in this manner. Therefore, according to the ruling of National Security Archive v. Department of Defense, 800 F.2d 1381 (D.C. Cir. 1989), codified by the 2008 FOIA amendments, defining a representative of the news media as “a person or entity that gathers information of potential interest to a segment of the public, uses its editorial skills to turn the raw materials into a distinct work, and distributes that work to an audience,” JMP should be considered a representative of the news media according to 5 U.S.C. § 552(a)(4)(A)(ii)(II). Similarly, our request for a public interest fee waiver should be granted. Most prior requests submitted by our organization have received fee waivers.

There can be no question that the information sought would contribute to the public’s understanding of government operations or activities and is in the public interest. Yuri Nosenko was one of the most famous Soviet defectors in history, and his involvement with the CIA (both as a detainee and as a respected scholar) is required reading for any intelligence scholar. Release of any documents pertaining to Mr. Nosenko will shed light on one of the CIA’s darkest moments and hopefully contribute to a clearer understanding of exactly what transpired and why, revealing intelligence history and thereby contributing to the public’s understanding of government operations or activities.

The CIA is required by law to respond to this request within 20 working days. Failure to timely comply may result in the filing of a civil action against your agency in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

We request that any documents or records produced in response to this request be provided in electronic (soft-copy) form wherever possible. Acceptable formats are .pdf, .jpg, .gif, .tif. Please provide soft-copy records by email, or on a CD if email is not feasible.

Your cooperation in this matter would be appreciated. If you wish to discuss this request, please do not hesitate to contact my Director of FOIA Operations Kel McClanahan at Kel@JamesMadisonProject.org or 301-728-5908.

Please respond to this request by email to Kel@JamesMadisonProject.org or by fax to 240-681-2189.

Sincerely,

Mark S. Zaid
